Dear Mr. Wood:-

This answers your inquiry of April 30th.

We believe that your occupation entitles you to Class A rate which is $15.00 for $5,000 principal sum for loss of limb, sight and other disabilities and $500 medical reimbursement. The same amount of principal sum and $1,000 medical reimbursement can be had for $20.00.

If you will kindly complete the enclosed application and return it to us we will submit it to the insurance company for approval and if you will state how much insurance you would like, we will be able to quote the exact cost and secure a policy for you promptly.

Thanking you for the inquiry, we remain,

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

I have herewith filled out new application for insurance.

I would rather have this for $500
medical reimbursement than for $1000.

Very truly yours,

Gentlemen:

The new policy of the Globe Indemnity Company reached me during my absence.

I note this carries no indemnity for death or loss of time. The indemnity for death was the chief thing I wanted in the policy and I cannot see where the new policy fills the bill, in fact I prefer the old policy after carefully reading the second. As I understand, the new policy is to take the place of the old one.

Very truly yours,

Surator
